

For Geraldine, Felicity, Wrinkle, Pin, Moon, Pixie, Snowy, Ned, Leaf, Fern, Grass, Liflin, Sunshine, Fehu, Ostara and all the other goats.

I would like to thank everyone who has helped make this book possible. To each and every one of my Kickstarter backers, and everyone who has helped spread the word of the book – I thank you all for helping create something that is in some ways a truly independent book, and in other ways a real community effort. It is like planting a food forest or building a goat barn together; we have done this by all helping when the help was needed and created something great that I hope will benefit goats and those that love goats.

There are families, farms, and individuals who have been especially supportive of this book, in particular I would like to name Nicole of Fairy Grove Creations, Julia Winter, Matthew, Cécile, & Mary, Jay Skiles, Goat Berry Farms, John Weaver, Joe Salcedo, Fertile Roots Foundation, Sarsbar, Garry Platt-Hepworth, Llovet Family, Joseph Alexander Chugg, Richard Wilkin, Brandi, Kat Fryzb, Melissa J. Edwards, Thadius Marcus, Rosemary Schmidt, Permaculture Kindergartener, Lauren Sue Magyari, J. Lauryl Jennings, Courtney Siobhan, Foliage, and Wendy The Weird Plant Lady O’Neill. I couldn’t have done this without every one of you. Thank you!

An extra special thank you with bacon, goat cheese, sparkles and pie goes to the community at Permies.com. The team at Pip Australian Permaculture Magazine deserve a big thank you for their support and generosity. I would also like to thank Permaculture News, and the Australian Raw Milk Movement.

A big thank you to my husband for his help, encouragement, and occasional sense of humour. Thank you also to my lovely children.

And to those who are not named here (you know who you are) -

Thank you!
